GREENLAND & ICELAND EXPEDITION CRUISE

It may be called Greenland but expect ice! Lots of it. Home to the largest - and least visited – National Park in the world, the country is absolute paradise for those who want their travel experiences raw and unfiltered. Begin first with Iceland [expect green – lots of it], and its melodic folk music before you cruise into the deafening silence of Greenland’s magnificent Scoresby Sound. We guarantee you’ll be left speechless!
